ODD FELLOWS OF GRAND LODGE HERE

MEET AND ARE ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON BY THE LOCAL MEMBERS.

Last night the local lodge of Odd Fellows had as its guests several of the officers of the grand lodge of the territory, who came here on the annual tour of inspection made about this time each year.

An interesting meeting was held followed by a luncheon, at which the visiting brethren made short addresses complimenting the local lodge upon its work. Today the grand officers, accompanied by a delegation of the local members, will visit Douglas and tonight will be present at the meeting of Odd Fellows there.

Those who composed the party of visiting officers were A. A. Ferguson, of Douglas, head of the grand lodge; A. Nielsen, grand master, of Tempe; and George Mintz, grand secretary, Phoenix.

ANOTHER FOOD PRICE PROBE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Explaining that he desired to obtain a comparative statement of food product prices on farm and in retail markets, Senator McCumber presented a resolution today directing the senate committee on agriculture to make such an investigation. McCumber declared the high prices asked the consumer for beef were out of all proportion to the prices paid on the farm. The resolution was referred to the committee on agriculture.

ANOTHER LETTER FROM WHITE SOX

MANAGER WRITES ABOUT DATE FOR BISBEE BUT IS NOT DEFINITE ENOUGH.

A letter received by Agent Graves of the E. P. & S. W., has once more revived that proposition of the Chicago White Sox to play Bisbee a visit the latter part of March when the Windy City boys come west on their training trip.

According to the letter, the Sox desire a guarantee of so much per man, as well as a percentage of the gate receipts. How much of either, however, they fail to state, and as the date they are liable to blow through here. As a whole, the communication is rather indefinite and Agent Graves has written back to Manager Hugh Duffy for more specific details, just how much per man they expect and how much of the gate receipts they require.

The reason baseball talk has not come more to the front is on account of the local option election. That is now out of the way and people will have time to settle down and think of other things. There's bound to be something popping in the baseball line in a few days in the way of an organization to promote a team.

With Cochise on the wet side of the ledger there's now no question of what the good sports will do in the matter. Watch for further announcements.

Baseball Notes.

Tex Irvin, the former Rochester catcher, will go south with the Brooklyn team for a trial.

It is said that like Mowrey of Cincinnati is booked for a place with Joe McGinty's Newark Club.

Eddie Doyle, brother of Larry Doyle the Giant star, has signed with the Springfield club of the Three-I league.

Gus Dornier, the old Boston pitcher now with Kansas City, was married recently to Miss Ruth Harper of Chambersburg, Pa.

The Boston Americans and St. Louis Nationals have arranged for an exhibition game at Little Rock during the spring training trip.

Joe Plummer, the former sporting news editor, has been appointed confidential secretary to President Johnson of the American league.

Roy Miller, the new Cub insider, is expected to beat either Steinfield or Tinker to a regular berth. That's fine business, on paper.

Messrs. Connolly, Sheridan, O'Loughlin, Keen, Perrine, Dineen, Egan and Evans have all been reappointed as umpires in the American league.

Bill Armour evidently intends to give Toledo fans a swell baseball feed this year. He has purchased a dozen beautiful "Nappies" from Cleveland.

August Grant, for the past seven years playing manager of the Santa Bend Central league team, has purchased the Evansville club in the same league.

Johnny Evers, the Chicago Cub, has passed up offers to coach Yale and Williams baseball squads. John is going to be on the training job early this year.

In professional baseball this year there are to be twenty-five players named Williams, twenty-nine Clark, thirty-four Brown and seventy-seven who belong to the great Smith family.

Manager Mack has announced that the Athletics will start south about Feb. 28. Connie will handle the youngsters himself and leave the veterans of the team in charge of Harry Davis.

A Few Fictuffs.

Jack Johnson has an offer of $20,000 to meet Sam McVey in Paris. A youngster has started in the night game who calls himself Young Ty Cobb.

Sam Langford is on his way to Los Angeles, where he is to meet Jim Flynn February 8.

Frank Klaus, the Pittsburgh middleweight, pasted labels all over Jack T. Sullivan in their recent bout in Boston.

Billy Brady says Stanley Ketchel could have whipped Tom Sharkey in the sailor's best days. What a huller must have come from Fourteenth street when Tom read this.

LANGENDORF IS THE BIG TREAT THIS EVENING

Second Number of Y. M. C. A. Entertainments Promises to Give People of District a Delightful Experience.

With the presentation of Mme. Frieda Langendorf in the recital at the Orpheum tonight, the Y. M. C. A. will give one of those classical treats equal at least to that of Mme. Ellen Beach Yaw. Some, possibly, will enjoy her rich voice better.

This is according to natural preference between soprano and contralto. The full rich notes of the lower scale sometimes appeal more to the listener than the heights of the altitudinal singer. From an operatic standpoint, honors are generally conceded to the soprano, but in a recital, with the star a contralto, ends are differently shaped. In an opera the contralto or mezzo-soprano has not the full play and sympathy with the audience, accorded the soprano, on account of generally being cast in a disagreeable role, known in melodramatic parlance as "female heavy." For that reason many prefer the contralto to a soprano in a concert. They can be better appreciated.

The Young Women's Christian Association has so far given to music lovers more than the highest expectations as regards classical music when Mme. Yaw opened the course. With Mme. Langendorf coming tonight and still other numbers later, it can be stated that Bisbee has not for many a day listened to a series of artists such as is being, and is to be, offered.

Additional City Briefs

Improvements to O. K.

In the O. K. theater has been making a number of improvements and at first undertaken owing to the uncertainty as to whether the theater would be a permanent institution or not. Manager Geetz, however, is of the opinion that it is there to stay, and has been installing draperies, more chairs and making improvements on the stage.

Will Give Reception.

The Queen Esther Circle, recently organized by the young ladies of the Methodist church and which is creating quite a stir in church circles, will give an informal reception in the church parlors this evening at 8 o'clock. All are invited.

False Alarm.

"Fire, fire," shouted someone last night as the hose company left the engine-house on the rim and dashed on toward Main street. Immediately the crowd started in pursuit, only to be informed after they paused for breath that the fire department was out for a harmless run. Victims of a conflagration wild-up to election festivities were thereby hopelessly spoiled.

Briggs Case Today.

At 11 o'clock this morning the case of J. H. Briggs, Jr., will come up for hearing in Justice High's court on a charge of disturbing the peace. He attempted to strike City Attorney Fred Sutter after the conclusion of the Hamilton case Tuesday afternoon and was immediately placed under arrest by Constable Lemmy Twomey.

Altar Society Meeting.

The Altar Society of the Catholic church will meet at the pastor's residence today, Thursday, at 2 p. m. All members are requested to be present.

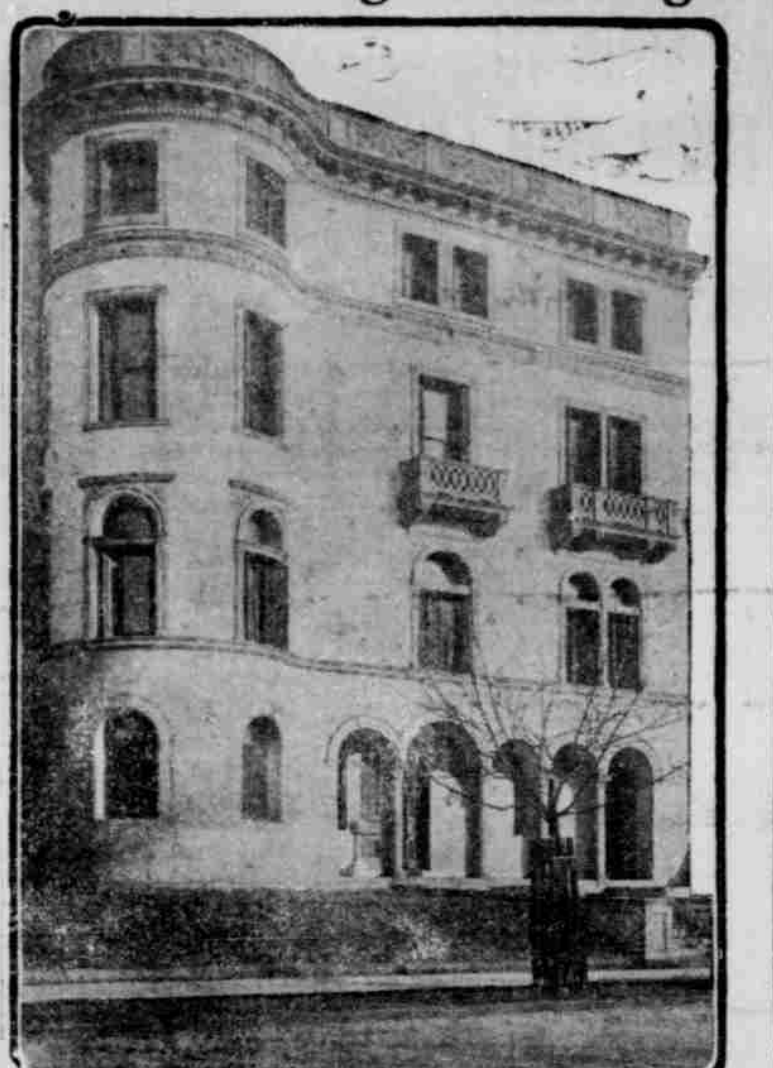

Invitations Out.

Invitations were issued yesterday for the annual banquet of the students of the Bisbee high school to be held at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening at the high school building. Members of the board of education, parents and representatives of the press are included on the invitation list. Following the feast the program of toasts, as previously announced in the Review, will be called out, with a number of impromptu speeches as individuals may be called upon. The affair is considered the event of the school year and the students, as well as their elders, are looking forward to a most enjoyable evening.
